

pig hole box game 6 out why always me

Pig Hole the Big Hole game why always me, the box game pig hole or away with the six is a fun dice game in which every player with luck by dice tries to be the first to get rid of his pieces. The 6 helps then is one again away and disappears in the hole the big hole ...

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Sales price 250,00 ?

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer

Description

Funny amusement game for two or more people of all ages. This is how it works: The many small wooden sticks in the box are distributed equally to all players. The goal is to get rid of all the wooden sticks. If you roll a 6, the stick can be sunk in the middle hole. The slots 1-5, however, leave the chopsticks and the field is occupied. Dice the fields of the board are occupied according to the numbers. If a field is already occupied, the player must take the staff, and the next player is his turn. Who has no wooden sticks, is the winner. Yes, soon you will know why the game "Why me always?" called!

Units in box: 1

Reviews

There are yet no reviews for this product.